Ofensiva israelense premier bets vip Rafah continua apesar de ordem da ONU

Israel appears to be continuing its offensive in the city of Rafah, despite a new decision by the UN Security Council to interrupt the attack, which it said was worsening a humanitarian crisis "disastrous" already existing.

Approximately 900,000 people fled Rafah, previously the last resort for 85% of the population of 2.3 million in the Palestinian territory of Gaza, since the start of the Israeli ground operation in Rafah on May 6. In the same period, humanitarian supplies and fuel to the Palestinian territory decreased to a minimum flow, with the two main border crossings - Rafah, on the border with Egypt, and the neighboring Kerem Shalom, a crossing point linking Gaza to Israel - effectively blocked by the fighting.

Decisão do ICJ

On Friday, the International Court of Justice (ICJ), which arbitrates disputes between nations, intervened for the third time in the conflict, ordering Israel to immediately stop its Rafah operation. The president of the court, Nawaf Salam, said in announcing the 13-2 majority decision, that Israel is obliged, in accordance with the UN Convention on the Genocide, not to impose "conditions of life that would cause physical destruction, in whole or in part, of the Palestinian people". However, as Israeli air strikes in the south and east of Rafah seemed to intensify, the measure that the ICJ announced, residents and doctors said, as the measure that the Israeli ground forces were approaching the center of the overcrowded city.

Other 30 Palestinians were killed by Israeli strikes in the last 24 hours, Palestinian doctors reported on Saturday; the battles are also continuing in the north and central Gaza, such as Jabalia and Zeitoun, where the forces belonging to the militant Palestinian group Hamas are regrouping.

The Israel Defense Forces (IDF) said on Friday night that it had carried out "operational activities in specific areas of Rafah", including the death of combatants from Hamas and the destruction of parts of the group's tunnel network.

The president of Egypt, Abdel Fattah el-Sisi, said on Friday night in a telephone call with the US president, Joe Biden, that the country would resume the sending of convoys from the UN to Kerem Shalom, but with Rafah still closed and the fighting continuing, it is uncertain if relief agencies will be able to access or distribute aid.
